ELIGIBILITY PROGRAMS

Life Wireless offers a Lifeline discount to low income families and individuals for wireless services. To obtain Life Wireless service, potential subscribers must meet certain eligibility requirements such as receiving governmental assistance or a household income that is 135% or below the federal poverty level for their state. Life Wireless service is limited to one per household, and cannot be combined with any other Lifeline offering. Lifeline is a government assistance program. Only eligible consumers may enroll in the program and documentation is necessary. Lifeline service is non-transferable.

In general, if a subscriber participates in any of the following programs, they are qualified for low-income telephone assistance.

- Food Stamps or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Section 8 Federal Public Housing Assistance (FPHA)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Medicaid
- Tribally-Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TTANF)
- Head Start (Tribal only, meeting qualifying income standards)
- Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance, Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR)
- The Veterans Pension or Survivors Pension
- Income at or below 135% of Federal Poverty Guidelines.
